

TREE FUND

Learn more at treefund.org

2017 TREE FUND Research Awards

Hyland R. Johns Research Grant ($50,000)

Richard Hauer, PhD
University of Wisconsin – Stevens Point
“Sustainable urban forestry planning models and decision making dashboard”

Kathleen Wolf, PhD
University of Washington
“Urban forests for human health: a focused economic valuation”

Safe Arborist Techniques Fund Grant ($15,000)

Brian Kane, PhD
University of Massachusetts Amherst
“Arboricultural safety around the world”

John Z. Duling Grant ($25,000)

Nina Bassuk, PhD
Cornell University
“Enhancing tree transplant success through the manipulation of root hydraulic conductance”

Thank you to our Crown and Diamond Partners:

Jack Kimmel International Grant ($10,000)

Rachael Antwis, PhD
University of Salford, U.K.
Co-Investigator Stephen Parnell, PhD,
University of Salford, U.K.
“Fighting microbes with microbes to protect our native trees”

Liliana Franco-Lara, PhD
Universidad Militar Nueva Granada
Co-Investigator Helena Brochero, PhD
Universidad Militar Nueva Granada
“Identification of possible insect vectors of phytoplasmas in Quercus humboldtii Bonplia in Bogotá, Colombia”

Directed Grant: Arboriculture Education Benchmark Review ($5,000)

Eric Wiseman, PhD
Virginia Tech
Co-Investigator Mrs. Sarah Gugercin, Virginia Department of Forest Resources and Environmental Conservation
“Education Review Program”

Directed Grant: Research Impacts and Outcomes Study ($25,000)

Andrew Koeser, PhD
University of Florida - Gulf Coast REC
Co-Investigator Rich Hauer, PhD,
University of Wisconsin – Stevens Point
“Research Review Program”

Visit treefund.org/partners to see all of our Partners